"The reason we do not go before the grand jury is because we like to go up step by Sant He regular way."

again he would impose the usual fine, $25.

The oraxin surv came into court this morning with indictments against the following parties, in addition to those against Capt. Henry W. Howgate: Engene Boston, Frederick Williams and James Simms, burglary and larceny: Hilleary Johnson, second offense, petil larceny; Williams Smith, larceny: Douglass W. Cross, murder of James Curry, August 12, 1881.

The sympathy, heartfelt and sincere, of their many friends is tendered Mrs. Rigabeth and Mr. Thomas Browning at this time of their said bereavement on the death of their young son, Thomas Browning in the 7th year of his age. The deceased was a charming little boy, the favorite of all who knew him. His remains were interred at Gettysburg, Pa., on Friday last. To add to their distress, Mr. and Mrs. Browning have two other children now lying at the point of death.

their distress, Mr. and Mrs. Browning have of two other children now lying at the point of death.

Miss, Gen. J. R. Ricketts, president, 1825 G street, and Mrs. J. C. Kennedy, secretary, 315 I street, of the lady visitors of the Children's Hospital, ask the public's remembrance of the helpless little invalids on the day of general thanksgiving. Donations in money, groceries, drygoods and fuel will be thankfully received and gratefully acknowledged if sent to Children's Hospital, corner of W and Thirteenth street, or to either of the above-mentioned ladies.

The following officers of the Grand Llodge, I. O. G. T., have been installed: A. H. Frear, G. W. C. T.; William B. Young, G. W. C.; James Henry, Jr., G. W. M., I. J. H. Stine, C. G. W. C. T.; Mrs. Sarah Brookfield, G. W. S.; William E. Childs, G. W. T.; Dr. C. A. Norton, G. W. C.; James Henry, Jr., G. W. M., I. J. H. Stine, C. G. W. C. T.; Mrs. Sarah Brookfield, G. W. A. S.; Miss Bessie Perry, G. W. D. M.; Miss Ella Coggins, G. W. I. G.; M. P. Caldwell, G. W. O. G.; Miss Molle Andrews, G. S. J. T.; Mrs. Mary E. Calve, E.; John H. Gurley, alternate.

There was a report on the streets this morning that a serious shooting affray between two men took place near Cabin John bridge, in which one man was seriously and perhaps fatally wounded. The officers of the Georgetown precinct had not up to the time of going to press heard anything of the matter. Later we were informed that the fight was between two canal boatmen. Dr. Townshend was called to attend the wounded man, whose name we could not learn. One shot too effect in the left arm, which was shattered. Another took effect in the abdomen and will probably prove fatal.

James Wills, the colored Janitor of the Randall School building, is evidently not prove fatal.

JAMES WILLS, the colored janitor of the Randail School building, is evidently not the proper man for a position of that character. Officer Branson a few weeks since had occasion to arrest some colored rowdies, and while doing so lost his hadge. This fellow picked it up and took it home. The badge was found in his passession has Saturday and he was arrested on the charge of stealing it. He was taken to the First Precinct station and left sile collateral, which he forfeited. It would appear from this that Wills side the badge. A police whistle was also found in his possession. Officer Branson says he thinks he will send to the enterprising janitor a billy that he might have a whole police outfit. The attention of the school trustees will be called by the police anthorities to Will's conduct.

District Government Notes. There was very little busness at the District offices to-day, two of the Commissioners being absent.

-William H. Rollins was foolay appointed by the Commissioners as station keeper, vice George R. Jackson.

-L. Thomas was granted a permit to-day to improve his residence, at Eighth and P streets southwest, as an expense of $900.

Mr. Robeson Not a Candidate for Speaker.

A Crittle reporter met Congressman G. M. Robeson at the National Hotel to-day and asked him what he knew about the Speakership.

"Nothing. I have not sufficiently investigated the question to be able to form an idea who would be the lucky man."

"I see your name quite frequently mentioned in connection with that honer; are you a candidate?"

"I am not now nor will I under any circumstances be a candidate."

From a gentleman who is an intimate friend of Mr. Robeson it was learned that he had said he would not accept the Speakership if it were unanimously tendered to him.

Suits Against New York Gamblers.
Several suits have been commenced against New York gamblers, with whom Geo. W. Tompkins, the cashier of Hatch & Peters, of New York, confesses that he lost $30,000 of his employers' money within two months. Tompkins asserts that he was inveigled into gambling by Al Smith, a sporting man. On four occasions he lost more than $4,000 at each sitting. At the gambling houses he passed under the name of S. B. Fuller, but that the proprietors knew his real name and that he was risking the money of his employers. He paid his losses with checks, which were signed by one of the firm, he representing that they were in payment of regular transactions of the firm. He was not always the loser, and is said to have won $30,000 at one of the faro Sults Against New York Gamblers. said to have won $30,000 at one of the faro banks, and lost it again at other games of

The suits are instituted in order to make the gamblers disgorge their winnings. Tompkins has no means from which to make any restitution; but it is said that the firm are confident of a complete recovery from the gamblers of the amount taken by him. He has always been held in high esteem by those who know him. He is about thirty-three years of age, and has a wife, but no children. He lives in Hoboken, occupying part of a house, and there was nothing in his style of living to indicate tastes or habits beyond his means. He was not a drinking man, and was punctual in attendance at the office. Tompkins was brought up in Tarrytown, where his father and mother are living, and are greatly respected. The suits are instituted in order to make
